

National University® Division of Extended Learning

U.S. Constitution

This course offers an introductory approach to the U.S. Constitution, including informative lectures covering the essential elements of the U.S. Constitution. Discussions will include a review of important historical events, and an easy-to-follow assessment of the judicial interpretations and amendments. Current events and their effects on you as a teacher will also be discussed. The discussions and class assignments help prepare you to pass the U.S. Constitution exam in one easy step. The course is available online or onsite with an online supplement, and includes exam required for CTC's Preliminary Credential.
