

Cross-Cultural Teaching

The master of education in Cross-Cultural Teaching is designed for students who are committed to being instructional leaders in the K-12 setting. Courses for this degree meet the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing requirements for a preliminary credential as well as meet requirements for a master's degree that interrelates theory and practice and promotes lifelong learning. The program, which has an internship option, is intended for students who want to obtain a preliminary credential and master's degree at the same time.

Career Opportunities for Cross-Cultural Teaching

- Elementary School Teacher
- Middle school Teacher
- Secondary School Teachers

Employers of Cross-Cultural Teaching

- Private Schools
- Public Schools
- Local Government Educational Services
- Private Educational Services
- Religious Organizations

Professional Associations and Affiliations

- National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education
<http://www.ncate.org>
- National Center for Alternative Certification
<http://www.teach-now.org>
- Association for Career and Technical Education
<http://www.acteonline.org>
- National Association for the Education of Young Children
<http://www.naeyc.org>
- Council for Professional Recognition
<http://www.cdacouncil.org>
- Teachers—Preschool, Kindergarten, Elementary, Middle, and Secondary <http://www.bls.gov/oco/ocos069.htm>
#top