BEHAVIORAL HEALTH AND HUMAN BEHAVIOR

Understand Human Behavior and Advance Your Professional Career

Do you have a passion for helping others and giving all individuals the opportunity to improve their quality of life? National University System offers a number of degree programs related to behavioral health and human behavior at each of our affiliates – National University, City University of Seattle, and Northcentral University.

Whether you want to enter the workforce or advance in your career, behavioral health and human behavior courses will prepare you for employment in a wide range of settings, including counseling, criminal justice, behavioral health, marketing research, behavioral analysis, management, and administration. Each program also prepares you to continue on and further your education.
