Nursing Admission Requirement – Admission Process

University Acceptance

To be eligible to apply to the Nursing Department, students must be officially accepted as a National University student. To do so, students must be provisionally accepted into an interim Non-Degree Seeking program and send all official transcripts and documentation to the Office of the Registrar.

Students including LVNs seeking to study nursing at National University must:

- A. Meet all requirements for admission to an undergraduate degree program at the University as outlined in the University Catalog,
- B. Have obtained a 2.75 cumulative GPA in the General Education and prerequisite courses, (Courses must have been taken at a regionally accredited institution.)
- C. Have earned a grade of “C” or higher in all prerequisite courses,
- D. Have a clear criminal background check and drug screen,
- E. Submit a separate application for admission into a specific nursing program, *Note: Meeting the minimum requirements, as listed above, does not guarantee admission into a nursing program.

Once the Office of the Registrar receives all official transcripts and other documents required for admission, student records are evaluated for transferability of credit.

Students allowed 3 attempts into National University Nursing program, this includes all campuses – SAN DIEGO, FRESNO, LOS ANGELES.

Complete Prerequisites

Once a student has been evaluated by the Office of the Registrar, an Academic Advisement Report is available in the SOAR Student Portal. This report lists all transferred coursework and can be used to determine if an applicant has completed the Nursing prerequisites. Prerequisite classes must be completed with a C grade or above.

(Please note that C- grades will not be accepted for prerequisite classes.)

Pre-Nursing Forum

Students interested in enrolling in a Nursing program must first attend a Pre-Nursing Forum. The forum will introduce you to the Nursing Department, detail the application process, and provide a program overview. To receive forum dates and times please e-mail:

San Diego - nursing@nu.edu

Fresno - fresnonursing@nu.edu

Los Angeles - lanursing@nu.edu

Apply to the Nursing Department

Students applying to any of the NU Nursing Programs in California can apply by logging on to their SOAR Student Portal (for complete instructions, please see Knowledge Base Article: Completing the Nursing Online Application).

From the SOAR Menu, click on the Nursing department link (left-hand side)

Select Nursing Application

Follow instructions as given

Once an application has been submitted and processed, the Nursing Department will contact eligible applicants to schedule an interview date. Students will receive an interview date via e-mail (1) week after the application deadline. Interview dates will be scheduled (4) weeks after the application deadline.

Nursing Pre-requisites/Co-Requisites

All pre-requisites must be completed with a "C" grade or better before you turn in your application. If a class is still in session it will not be accepted. Overall GPA is 2.75; if you have earned your bachelor's degree and your cumulative GPA is not a 2.75, GPA must be a 3.0 for the last 60 semester or 90 quarter units you've completed.

Military Experience & Education**

Policy on Advanced Placement Awarding Prior Education Credit for Military Students

National University Department of Nursing administration will evaluate courses completed through the United States Military Services. Students will receive nursing course credits when their Joint Services Transcript (JST) equivalency criteria (time limit, credit and content) are met. Time limit equivalency is 7 years or less. If time limit equivalency is not met; students may receive credit through challenge by course examination and skill validation and/or medication dosage examination. Students must provide proof of coursework and clinical experience for approval to challenge nursing courses by course examination and skill validation and/or medication dosage examination. The student is required to take the NSG 328 BSN Transition if challenging NSG 245/NSG 245A or higher-level courses. According to the California Board of Registered Nursing (BRN), credit by examination shall be designed for the purpose of evaluating knowledge and/or clinical skills necessary to meet course objectives. U.S. military active service members or honorably discharged veterans accepted for admission to the NU nursing program may be eligible to challenge nursing course by examination(s) or be considered for equivalency. Applicants will receive course credit and advanced placement for successfully challenged courses. Co-requisite nursing courses will have to be challenged together. In order to receive credit for challenge courses, student must pass both co-requisite nursing courses. All course challenges by examination must be completed prior to the beginning of the first term in NU nursing program. Student who successfully challenges a course will receive a revised plan of study. Student must meet NU residency requirements.

LVN Experience & Education**

Policy on Advanced Placement Awarding Prior Education Credit for License Vocational Nurses (LVNs)
