Junior Achievement Affiliation Verification

National University is pleased to offer a tuition reduction scholarship to Junior Achievement employees, teachers and volunteers*. To become eligible you must be admitted in accordance with National University's existing admission requirements and processes for undergraduate and graduate level coursework and be actively engaged as a Junior Achievement employee, teacher or volunteer. For teachers and volunteers "actively engaged" means that you are hosting or teaching a JA class in the current school year or when admission is requested outside of the normal school year month, you were actively engaged in the most recently completed school year. Volunteer hours and opportunities will be determined by the Junior Achievement branch that you are working with.

To validate your engagement with JA please complete the form below. All applicants must complete Section I. JA employees complete Section II. Volunteers and teachers complete Section III.
