Dear International Students,

We hope you are doing well. We wanted to reach out to give you a brief update related to the return to campus.

Our top priority continues to be the safety and well-being of our students, faculty, and staff. President Cunningham sent a letter today to inform students, faculty, and staff that National University will continue remote operations until further notice.

SEVP has confirmed that the current guidance provided in March 2020 continues to be the current policy for international students and universities.

I am writing to let you know that we will continue to work with our international students to explore additional solutions as needed.

We continue to monitor and follow guidance from all government entities to ensure compliance with all federal regulations, as well as health and safety guidelines provided. We will also continue to share any additional updates and guidance with you.

Please contact International Affairs (iss@nu.edu) if you have any questions. Also, please visit NU's COVID website for more information and FAQs at nu.edu/coronavirus.

We are grateful and value each of you and your contributions to the National University community.

Best regards,

Melissa Diaz
