

Transfer Your ASHP Walgreens Pharmacy Technician Training Receive Course Credit at NU

National University is dedicated to supporting adult learners from all walks of life. Recognizing that all students come to us with different experiences and knowledge, NU is proud to offer prior learning credit for the ASHP Walgreens Pharmacy Technician Training Program.

Walgreens Pharmacy Technician Training program has been evaluated by the American Council on Education (ACE) to award college credit.

WALG-0003 ASHP Walgreens Pharmacy Technician Training Program

Which Units/Courses Can You Transfer to National University?

The program awards 10 quarter units of lower-division, open-elective credit.

Instruction and Assessment

- Instructional Strategies: Audio-visual materials, case studies, classroom exercises, computer-based training, discussion, laboratory lectures, and practical exercises
- Methods of Assessment: Examinations, performance rubrics (checklists), and quizzes
- Minimum Passing Score: 75%

Walgreens Curriculum Per the American Council on Education	Transferability to National University	Equivalent Courses
Walg-0003 ASHP Walgreens Pharmacy Technician Training Program	Awards 10 quarter units of lower-division, open-elective credit instruction	Psu 107ZZ Lower-Division Open Elective Transfer Psu 107ZZ Lower-Division Open Elective Transfer Psu 107ZZ Lower-Division Open Elective Transfer

You've already done the work – now make sure you get the credit. Talk to an admissions advisor about transferring your credits to National University, including military experience. National University is an accredited institution that offers 75+ on-site and online degree programs, including certificate and credential programs. Whether you want to advance in your field or learn the skills to embark on a new career, National University will challenge you to grow.

QUESTIONS? EMAIL US
WESCorp@nu.edu

Walgreens Employees are eligible to receive 25% off of tuition at National University: Learn More

